- We always do our best to make sure your holiday arrangements are satisfactory and we accept liability for, but only to the extent if any loss or damage sustained by you as a result of our gross negligence or that of our employees. However, we cannot accept liability of whatever nature for the acts, omissions or defaults, whether negligent or otherwise, of those principals providing services in connection with your holiday pursuant to a contract between themselves and yourself (which may be evidenced in writing by the issue of a ticket, voucher, coupon or the like) and over whom we have no direct or exclusive control. We do not accept any liability in contract or in tort for any injury, damage, loss, delay, additional expenses or inconvenience caused directly or indirectly by force majeure or other events which are beyond our control, including but not limited to war, civil disturbance, fire, floods, unusually severe weather, acts of God, acts of Government or any authorities, accidents to or failure of machinery or equipment.

- Failure by the client to pay the said deposit by the due date will entitle the company to cancel all bookings made.
